Stoke on Trent. ST6 12 NP

- DSI acknowledge the primacy of ensuring, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of our employees and those who may be affected by their activities, particularly other contractors and members of the public.
- To sustain that commitment DSI will continually measure, monitor and revise where necessary an annual plan to ensure that Health & Safety standards are adequate.
- The company will provide, so far as reasonably practicable,
 - Safe places and systems of work,
 - Safe plant and machinery,
 - Safe handling of materials and substances,
 - The provision of adequate safety equipment,
 - Ensure that appropriate information, instructions, training and supervision is given to its employees.
- The Managing Director will implement the Companies Health and Safety Policy and recommend any changes to meet new circumstances. These instructions will then be carried out through the normal chain of management.
- All employees have a duty under the Health & Safety at Work act 1974 and they will be informed of their personal responsibilities to take care of Health & Safety of themselves and to ensure that they do not endanger other persons by their acts or omissions. They are also informed that they must co-operate with the company in order that it can comply with legal requirements placed upon it and in the implementation of this policy.
- DSI recognises that successful Health and Safety Management contributes to successful business performance and will allocate resources accordingly.

Signed.

Director
